Also in Eardisley at 2pm on Wednesday 17th October an elderly lady was approached and questioned about some painting work. She was then persuaded to hand over money to ensure further work was carried out. A sharp eyed neighbour could give the police an excellent description of the vehicle this person was in. Following activation on the ANPR cameras later that night I am delighted to tell you that a person has been arrested for this despicable offence and they are “helping police with there enquires” at time of writing this news alert.
